PRESS RELEASE

Robberies of Convenience Stores

On Sunday November 20, 2011 at approximately 7:00 PM, North Kingstown Police were called to an attempted robbery at the Shell Station located on 10 Ten Rod Rd in North Kingstown. The suspect entered the store wearing a grey hooded sweatshirt and black mask demanding money. The suspect told the clerk "give me all the money" where the clerks told the suspect "no". No weapon was shown in this incident.

A short time later at approximately 8:00 PM the same suspect entered the Engine Food Lane located at 6155 Post Rd, North Kingstown demanding money by telling the clerk "I need all of your money" while showing a box cutter in his hand. The suspect ended up taking $200 from this store then fleeing on foot.

No one was hurt during the incidents.
